“Making life easier for families is a core part of our organization’s mission and that starts with our own employees,” said Bright Horizons CEO Stephen Kramer. “To be recognized as a ‘Top Place to Work’ for the 12th time is a true testament to the passionate employees who make up the Bright Horizons family. We’ve fostered a culture where our employees care about each other and believe in our mission to support families in all aspects of their lives. And, for that, I am extremely proud.”

By helping to support other employers, with 1,100 clients, Bright Horizons leads by example in emphasizing a unique and welcoming company culture. The company is built on the belief that every individual brings a unique approach and strength to the table that is valuable. This culture impacts the families that Bright Horizons serves too. In providing quality care and education for 120,000 children across the country, Bright Horizons takes pride in ensuring that each family has the supports that they need.

The rankings in Top Places to Work are based on confidential survey information collected by Energage (formerly WorkplaceDynamics), an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention, from nearly 66,000 individuals at 323 Massachusetts organizations. The winners share a few key traits, including offering progressive benefits, giving their employees a voice, and encouraging them to have some fun while they’re at it.
