

Bright Horizons Named as One of The Denver Post's Top Workplaces 2022

May 19, 2022

BROOMFIELD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 19, 2022-- For the eighth consecutive year, Bright Horizons (NYSE:BFAM), a leading global provider of high-quality early education and child care, back-up care, and workplace education services, has been named one of The Denver Post's Top Workplaces.

"We are honored to be recognized as one of the 'Top Workplaces' in Colorado," said Bright Horizons Chief People and Inclusion Officer Felicia Robinson. "This recognition reflects a work environment that allows our employees to unleash their passion and make a difference in the lives of the children, communities, and clients we serve every day."

Bright Horizons has more than 650 employees in the state of Colorado across its early education and child care centers as well as a Home Office which includes a customer contact center. Bright Horizons offers careers that make a lasting impact on the lives of children and all lifelong learners. The Horizons Teacher Degree Program, which is exclusive to Bright Horizons employees, offers teachers and center staff the opportunity to receive an associates and bachelor's degree in early childhood education for free with no out-of-pocket costs.

The Denver Post's Top Workplaces list features 150 organizations with 50 or more employees in Colorado. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 culture drivers that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection.
