

Bright Horizons Chairman Brown Named President of Berklee College of Music

February 6, 2004

BOSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 6, 2004--Bright Horizons Family Solutions' (NASDAQ: BFAM) Co-Chairman of the Board Roger Brown has been named President of Berklee College of Music. Brown, who will remain in his capacity as Co-Chairman of Bright Horizons, is excited to bring together his professional career in education and personal passion for music.

"The success of Lee Berk and his father, Lawrence, in creating and building Berklee College of Music is extraordinary. I am excited to contribute my enthusiasm for education and passion for music to continue the Berklee tradition of educating and inspiring the next generation of musicians, who will help write the 21st century chapter of an excellent and singular institution," said Bright Horizons Co-Chairman Roger Brown.

"The entire Bright Horizons family is thrilled for Roger. He will bring boundless energy and enthusiasm to this newest endeavor. Roger embodies the spirit of education and art as life's great motivating forces and opportunity creators. He has long advocated for investments in early education that will give all children the skills and nurturing they need to begin their journey of lifelong learning," said Bright Horizons CEO David Lissy.

Located in Boston, Massachusetts, Berklee College of Music is the world's largest independent music college and the premier institution for the study of contemporary music. Prominent Berklee alumni include music industry professionals such as Quincy Jones, Branford Marsalis, Aimee Mann, Susan Tedeschi, Bruce Cockburn and Gary Burton. Berklee alumni won 15 Grammy awards at the 2003 ceremony.

Berklee College of Music

Berklee College of Music was founded in 1945 on the revolutionary principle that the best way to prepare students for a career in music is through the study and practice of contemporary music. For over half a century, the college has evolved to reflect the state of the art of music and the music business. With over a dozen performance and nonperformance majors, a diverse and talented student body of 3,800 representing over 70 countries, and a music industry "who's who" of alumni, Berklee is the world's premier learning lab for the music of today - and tomorrow.
